sake & shochu

HANEYA JUNMAI GINJO YAMABUKI SAKE

soft sweet start, gentle vanilla like fragrance and soft liquorice notes. fresh on palate followed by good, vibrant acidity. rich with savory with sharp and crisp aftertaste. leaves one's palate with traces of soft umami harmonizes with delicious hints of nuts and cinnamon. Excellent to pair with grilled fish, makes good marriage with light fatty food.

Perfect as an alternative to white wines.

$24

KAGATSURU UMESHU

used kanazawa originally grown green nanko ume. steed for one and a half year in tank from sake brewed using 100% Gohyakumangoku rice. Rich and flavorful, blend perfectly well with the rich full flavor of sake and tangy of plums. very delicious, nice, clean aroma of plum fruits. blended with extra fruits plum extract before bottling.

best to serve on the rocks, mix with soda or drink very chilled in a tiny shot glass for aperitif.

IKI SUPER GOLD SHOCHU

wheat shochu that was aged for five years in spanish white oak barrel. golden yellow in color, it has a soft oaky fragrance, slightly sweet and very pleasant clean finish

THE "KO-SHU" OF DARUMA-MASAMUNE 10 YEARS OLD

In a reference from the Kamakura Era (approx.. 1200A.D.) there is a description of aged Japanese sake, which was matured for three, five or seven years. This matured sake was called "Ko-Shu".

This "Ko-Shu" is located in Gifu City in the heart of Japan. Great as a aperitif or digestive.
